

DICHOTOMY

A full colour book of art and poetry
32 Pages - 21 x 22cm

illustrated by Lyne Marshal

Poems by Neal McKenzie

Lyne Marshall is a contemporary Australian artist who has exhibited extensively in Australia and overseas. This book is the result of her collaboration with poet Neal McKenzie and was published in 2003 by Fox Galleries, to compliment an exhibition of the same name. The artwork from the book was next exhibited at Logan Art Gallery in 2005 and Bundaberg Arts Centre in 2007. While it is a book for lovers of art and poetry, combined with Lyne's new book on the creative process, Gleaner or Gladiator; the struggle to create, Dichotomy may be useful for artists, art students and teachers to show how determination and focus can bring positive growth.
